with Nadine Strossen

ELAN BENTOV
Co-Director & Writer
Free To Speak

Elan Bentov is the writer and co-director of Free To Speak, a three-part documentary that examines the epic history and power of free speech and its effect on the progress of humankind.

Free To Speak is the third documentary Bentov and his production partner, Kip Perry, have produced for Free To Choose® Media. He was the writer, co-producer, cinematographer, and editor for Is America in Retreat? (2017), and he was the writer, cinematographer, and editor for The Price of Peace (2018). Both programs aired on public television nationwide.

Bentov has been writing and producing documentary and lifestyle programming for television, online, and commercial clients for more than fifteen years through Parking Lot Productions in Los Angeles.
