

In Corporate Welfare: Where's the Outrage?, Ron Becker, owner of Memphis's The Great American Home Store, relays how he was told there were no tax abatement programs for retail, yet IKEA received almost $9 million in tax abatements.